LIST OF PUBLICATIONS

SEPTEMBER 2008

COUNSELLORS & SUBPOENAS 3RD EDITION

A practical guide for counsellors about the law on subpoenas. The guide is now in its 3rd edition and covers the law on criminal proceedings, namely sexual assault trials, and family law proceedings. The guide provides practical guidance to counsellors on how to comply with subpoenas and disclosure notices and what steps to take when making an objection on a client's behalf. Included are a number of draft letters to the Court setting out reasons for objection. Please note that all previous editions of this publication do not reflect the current law and therefore should not be used for guidance in this area. $15.00 plus freight.

LONG WAY TO EQUAL AN UPDATE OF "QUARTER WAY TO EQUAL: A REPORT ON BARRIERS TO ACCESS TO LEGAL SERVICES FOR MIGRANT WOMEN" (2007)

Long Way To Equal gives a current assessment and analysis of the legal problems and barriers to access to legal services experienced by migrant and refugee women in Australia. The 2007 report considers government and community sector responses to recommendations made in 2004 and considers strategies for change. $10.00 plus freight.

QUARTER WAY TO EQUAL The 1994 report is still available. $10.00 plus freight.

WOMEN & FAMILY LAW 8TH EDITION

An essential tool to assist women to understand the law as it impacts on their relationships with other partners and children. Women & Family Law has been rewritten so that the 8th Edition reflects the current status of Family Law. $4.00 plus freight.

OUR DREAM...STOPPING THE VIOLENCE SECOND EDITION 2007

This is an information booklet for Aboriginal women on domestic violence and the law in NSW. The second edition has been updated to include legal information about the changes to NSW Domestic Violence Law that occurred in March 2007. It is designed primarily for Aboriginal women; it may also be a useful resource for non-Aboriginal service providers. Cost: $3.00 for Aboriginal groups, $10.00 for other groups plus freight.

GO GIRL

This is an information and training video about AVO hearings which includes an accompanying booklet. The video is aimed both at women victims of domestic violence and the service providers who assist them. The video is the story of two Aboriginal sisters who guide us through their experience and bring clarity to what can be a daunting and confusing process. Cost: $44.00 for government dept. or agencies, $22.00 for community groups, $11.00 for individuals plus freight.

OUR SILENCE IS ABUSING OUR KIDS

Unique and innovative stories about Aboriginal women working locally to stop child sexual assault. Jointly produced by Dympna House and Women's Legal Services NSW, the booklet contains interviews with community women and Aboriginal workers about their own efforts in their communities to protect children and support young people. Also contains vital information about child sexual assault. $10.00 plus freight.

WOMEN OUT WEST

Women Out West was an innovative project initiated by WLRC and funded by a grant from The Law Foundation of NSW for Aboriginal women in the far west of NSW during 1992. The project used a multi disciplinary approach to provide legal education workshops, information, legal advice and resources on domestic violence, family law and sexual assault. The report describes the project objectives, the distribution of legal and health information and fliers. $11.00 for Govt. organisations and $10.00 for non - Govt. plus freight.
